my apologies for such a late response Tom. thought I'd actually responded via direct email... or maybe I did, but for some reason I can't find it.

you have certainly given me some great info to work on and I'll re-check my tree to find the link or at least confirm some thoughts that I have.

regards,

Wayne

Hi Wayne,

I am very confident in my descent from Angus Bann MacDonald as my sister still lives on 10 acres of the original 200 acre land grant by the Crown back in the 1790's :-). My great grandfather married Elizabeth MacDonald and her father John (Angus Ban's grandson) gave them 20 acres of the 100 acres he still had. My mother sold 10 of those acres in the 1980s as she and her second husband (my father had died) were building a new house there for retirement. Now my sister and her husband live there. This is in Glengarry County Ontario Canada. I will try and send photos to your email address. My email is tom.stewart@sympatico.ca

Best Regards,

Tom

hello Tom, seems we may have a DNA/Tree match, mind you, in the 8th cousin range.
wondering how confident you are with your relationship with Angus Ban MacDonald & Elinor MacDonald?
I ask as my connection is possibly shaky as it is based on the line of one ancestor who every other family genealogist thinks is not related to Angus and Elinor. mind you they haven't done the DNA thing, so perhaps that is the telling point of interest. hope to hear back from you
regards,
Wayne
